

PSI Career Mail

PSI Career Center – Training. Career. Happiness.

Dear reader

Spring – nature is awakening, the leaves on the trees are turning green again and you can hear birds chirping. Often spring is also a time for new starts in a career. This is depicted by the fact that numerous career fairs - such as the Polymesse or the Poly-E-Fair - take place in the months of April and May.

So, in many ways it is an awakening and a tackling of the future.

Enjoy reading,
Yvonne

Spotlight on...

... PSI Career Blog “mind the gap” – out now!

The PSI Career Center now offers a Career Blog. The objective is to provide a variety of information about career planning - whether in the Academia or elsewhere. The focus is on questions and concerns which PhDs and postdocs have in relation to their professional paths. The plan is to have about one post per month, starting with "the forgotten ingredient in career planning".
